

How To Log Into Plesk

You can log into plesk by going to <https://domain:8443> or <https://ip:8443> Where domain is your website, ip is the address to your server; you can get your IP address by contacting tech support. Using the IP address will allow you to manage your account even before the domain is active.

Related articles

Content by label

There is no content with the specified labels