

What Is Password Protect

Password Protect is a means of controlling access to web pages/sites. In cPanel under the security section you can password protect directories. You can add different usernames and passwords to allow access to a particular directory through a browser. A video on this can be found here