

Can I Get A Refund After The 30-Day Money-Back Guarantee

This article contains information about the refund policy.

If your account is canceled after the first 30 days of service, we are unable to issue a refund. Please review the terms of service at <https://www.midphase.com/terms/>

You will find that both our cancellation and refund policy are clearly explained. To ensure a refund, please cancel the account within the first 30 days of service, per our 30 day money back guarantee as listed on midphase.com.

 Your account renews until you submit a cancellation.
