

How To Create And Download A Backup

This article will show you how to create a backup and download it to your local machine. We strongly encourage clients to always have a back up of their content.

You can easily create backups, however the method of saving and downloading a backup may differ depending on what type of service you have with us. To reach a guide for your service, please select the appropriate option below:

CPanel Hosting

How To Download a Backup

WordPress Hosting

How to Create a WordPress Backup

Website Builder

Unfortunately, it is not possible to save and download a backup of the Website Builder service.

Dedicated Server

How To Create And Download A Backup On A Dedicated Server

VPS

How To Create And Download A Backup On A VPS

If you do not see your service listed in this article, or if you are unsure how to download a backup and/or delete content, as always please contact our expert support team.